Basic hygiene rules apply as they would for any coughs and colds-keep washing your hands especially prior to eating. We have no concerns in school currently and will keep you updated if this changes.
Resilience: Our value for this half term is resilience. We are talking about never giving up and showing kindness to other people.	Ladies running group: We made a great start to week one and the mums are already motivated to meet up in between. You are more than welcome to come along for week two next Wednesday at 2.15pm
Holiday club: The holiday club was a huge success despite the awful weather. Well done to those that attended.	This week's winning team: RED
World Book Day: The children are invited to dress up for World Book Day on Thursday. We will be opening the new school library officially. A letter has been sent home. We will parade on the infant yard first thing in the morning weather permitting. If not parents are invited to join us in the hall to see the costumes.	Newsletter: Please note that the weekly newsletter is available to read on the website every week. Sponsored Sportivator: Please return any remaining sponsor money by Monday 2nd March. Thank you so much for all monies raised. The children will benefit from all the sporting equipment we can buy as well as raising money for the Olympic athletes.
