

Dear Year 3, Parents and Carers,

The Lancashire English Teaching team have provided schools in Lancashire with resources to support home learning opportunities. I have made a few tweaks and have shared them on the Year 3 class page. They will be uploaded on a weekly basis following the Easter holidays.

This week:

This week, your English unit is based on the Roald Dahl book, 'The Twits'. Do you remember during our playscripts unit when we looked at the wormy spaghetti scene? It was funny, wasn't it? Well, this week involves exploring the characters in various chapters of the book.

Enjoy the unit and I look forward to hearing how you got on!

Lots of love from Mrs Lonsdale x
