

Summer Ideas

Sticky Messages Use sticks and stones to spell out words like "hello" or "be kind" in a local park. You could even spell out your own name like the photo below. 	The Great Outdoors	How Many Butterflies? The big butterfly count 2020 will run from Friday 17th July to Sunday 9th August. Take part here www.bigbutterflycount.org
Rock Painting Paint a rock and leave it in a public place for someone else to find. Use acrylic paints then clear varnish afterwards to make it last for longer. 	Barking Mad Take some paper and wax crayons out in your bag on a walk in the woods. Take rubbings of the bark of interesting trees.	Paddle and Splash Wear wellies or waterproof shoes and paddle in a nearby stream or river.
Dens Make a den. Use sheets and the washing line or large sticks and canes. https://www.woodlandtrust.org.uk/blog/2019/10/how-to-build-a-den/	Discover Visit woods that you've never been to before. Use the website below to find new locations to explore. https://www.woodlandtrust.org.uk/visiting-woods/find-woods/	Become a Stone Skimming Champ Find a flat stone and a calm bit of water to practise skimming stones. Check the website below for instructions to perfect your technique. https://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/features/no-5-skim-a-stone
Spot It Have a scavenger hunt. How many yellow things can you see out on your walk? Can you find lots of items that have different textures? 	Woodland Art Use materials found in the woods to create funny faces or patterns. Take photographs to preserve them.	Hill Rolling Rolling down a hill is great fun and a great way to get to the bottom. Just watch out for stones or animal droppings!
Eye spy ABC On a walk or a bike ride see if you can spot things that begin with each letter of the alphabet. Some letters are easier than others. 	Snap Happy Take a camera outside and capture the natural world in all its glory. Take a look at the website below for some top tips. https://www.woodlandtrust.org.uk/visiting-woods/things-to-do/photography/	Pedal Power Go on a long bike ride with your family. Pack a bag with snacks and drinks and don't forget to follow the rules of the road. https://www.sustrans.org.uk/our-blog/get-active/2019/everyday-walking-and-cycling/cycling-safety-for-children/
